Special Status Talks In Exec Session

categorically and specifically, honest and would serve whether they had that status or not," Pearson said. Selectmen do not have special municipal employee status.

Pearsons would like the Selectmen to consider eliminating the status altogether, he said. His purpose for attending the meeting was informational, he said.

He also questioned Thaxter's opinion on retaining the status on several counts. He asked that consideration of the number of towns having the status and those not be taken, and to decide whether uniformity is a good reason for applying the status in Cohasset. He questioned Thaxter's usage of the word "inappropriate" in ruling that the status should stay and his rationale in stating that if the designation weren't made many capable people wouldn't have been able to serve the town.

"They (Selectmen) are obviously still considering this situation," Pearson said. Selectman Arthur Clark said last week that the issue would appear as an agenda item in the future.

Jazz Ensemble Reward

The Cohasset High School Jazz Ensemble was awarded a finalist plaque for its performance at the 10th Annual Berklee College of Music High School Jazz Festival held in Boston last month.

Cohasset was joined by Westford Academy (MA.), St. Joseph's (N.Y.) and Westbrook (ME.) as finalist schools in class III. Eighteen schools competed in this class representing eight states in the northeast.

Senior trombonist Peter Cook and Sophomore Tubist Phil Trask were awarded citations for playing excellence. The ensemble performed "flawlessly," according to director Tony Hyde, a varied program geared to the musical stylings of the group.

They opened with the jazz standard, "Close Your Eyes" with solos by Chris Williams (sax), Sally Sisson (flute), and Andy Trask (trombone). Next came the beautiful ballad "A Time for Love" by Johnny Mandel. This number received ed special praise from the 3 man judging panel as being "sensual," "haunting," and "sensitive." It featured the trombone and flute section, with flute solo by Lisa Kurtz. To conclude the group rendered Hank Levy's lively, "The Time is Now" featuring Cook and Trask and drummer Steve Espinosa.

The Berklee event marked the final competitive performance of the year for the ensemble. In five events Cohasset took a first, two seconds and two thirds.

Members of the ensemble include: Steve Daniels, Phil Dormitzer, Skip Young, Ted Durant, and Michael Birmann (trumpets); Peter Cook, Eric Hurtig, Ann Patroliia, Andy Trask (trombones); Phil Trask (tuba); Chris Williams, Mike Meallo, Phil Tye, and Michele Fahey (saxes); Sally Sisson, Lisa Kurtz, Heather Carroll and Alexandra Mullen (flutes); Sue Ratt, Peggy Atkinson, Jon Durant, David Zobel, Lance Norris and Steve Espinosa (rhythm).
